NOTICE

In continuation to Notification No. Admn. 02/2020 dated 13.03.2020, wherein the classes and other academic activities of the University were suspended upto 23.03.2020, a meeting of all Heads and Deans to review the situation that arose due to issuance of the order by Government of Bihar to close all Universities upto 31st March, 2020 was held on 16.03.2020.

In accordance with the decisions taken in the said meeting, the Competent Authority has issued following orders for preventing the spread of COVID-19 and also for compensation of the teaching and academic loss:

- (i) All teaching, academic and research activities shall remain suspended till 31st March, 2020;
- (ii) The students and research scholars shall vacate the hostels and shall go homes;
- (iii) All faculty members will stay at homes and shall be available to guide students on electronic media during this period;
- (iv) The number of days for which the teaching/classes are suspended, the faculty members shall work extra for those many days (on Saturday/Sunday or other holidays to be decided later) to ensure that classes are held for minimum 90 days in the current semester including the examination period.

Accordingly, all concerned are advised to stay at homes and follow the guidelines/instructions issued by the Government for prevention of COVID-19
