Plan of Action based on Analysis of feedback

Central University of South Bihar (CUSB) collected feedback on its curriculum and other parameters from following stakeholders:

- Students
- Parents
- Alumni
- Employers and
- Teachers

The aim of the student feedback collection is to get opinion on the curriculum of the offered programs specifically on the attainment of Program Specific Outcomes (PSOs) and Course Specific Outcomes (Cos) and other parameters such as fundamental topic in the syllabus, relevance of the course, extend of course coverage during each semester etc. Feedback from other stakeholders includes questions related to every aspect important for holistic learning and professional development of students and infrastructure of the university.

The feedback collected is analyzed to improve upon the course curriculum and other infrastructure facilities. The feedback data is shared with every department to discuss and deliberate upon suggestions at the level of departmental committee, and suitable suggestion are being discussed and deliberated in the BoS meeting. The course curriculum approval and adoption process of CUSB is given below:

In this regard, an official notification is issued by the registrar to all the departments to consider the feedback received from various stakeholders such as students, teacher, parents, and employer while carrying out the course syllabus revision (F.No. CUSB/Acad/58-1/2020/AE208 dated 22/04/2022). Further, departments considered the feedback during course structure and syllabus revision which is evident from the minutes of recent Board of Studies (NEP) of each department (<https://www.cusb.ac.in/course-structure-and-syllabus/>).
